

By the King.

A Proclamation containing His Maiesties Royall pleasure, for the Warrant and continuance of the Patent, and former Proclamation concerning Farthing Tokens.

Hereas the KINGs most Excellent MAIESTIE, for the suppressing of the manifold abuses, in passing of Farthing Tokens, of Lead, Brasse, Copper, and other Mettall, betweene Wintners, Tapsters, Chandelers, Bakers, and other the like Tradesmen, and their Customers; did publish his Proclamation, bearing Date at White-hall, the nineteenth day of May, in the eleventh yeere of his Maiesties Reigne of Great Britaine, France and Ireland, As a prudent Remedie of the said abuses; whereby his Maiestie did prohibite the uttering of all Farthing Tokens whatsoever, and was pleased to giue full power and authoritie, to Iohn Lord Harrington, his Executors, or Assignes, to make, or cause to be made, such a competent quantity of Farthing Tokens of Copper, as might bee conueniently vsed within his Realmes of England, and Ireland, and Dominions of Wales, according to his Highnesse Letters Patents vnder the Great Seale, for the sole making and uttering thereof, as by the sayd Proclamation, and Letters Patents, more at large it doth appeare. Now forasmuch as his Maiestie is informed, That vpon the death of the said Lord Harrington, the elder, and more especially vpon the death of the late Lord Harrington his Sonne, by meanes of some false bruits spread abroad by lewd and euill disposed persons; some doubt is made of the continuance of the force of the said Proclamation, and the vse of the said Farthing Tokens of Copper: Insomuch that thereupon some not well disposed, doe either refuse to vse them, or doe continue to utter their owne Tokens, of Brasse, Copper, and other Mettall, or matter contrary to the true intent of his Maiesties sayd Grant, and prohibition, and of the said Proclamation, whereby the said abuses, and the licentious vse of
